Information for Categories 1—52: (Please see Costuming Category for separate rules)

All Dolls must be the work of the artist entering it. Purchased shoes, wigs and accessories are acceptable.

It is recommended that dolls entered are recent work of the artist so an accurate critique of the artist’s current abilities may be given.

Dolls taller than 31” may not be entered

Dolls must have the initials of the artist and the 4 digit year incised on the head - no china painting of the name and year.

Any accessory must be securely attached. Items that fall off will have point deductions.

All dolls must be on a stand suitable for the size and weight of the doll and securely attached to the stand. Stand decorations are optional.

Antique Reproduction dolls must be submitted with a copy of the photo and/or information the artist used for painting reference. Please submit a copy of your reference with the tag number of the entry. No name or initials on reference material. Every effort will be made to return reference material to the artist.

Refer to the D.A.G. Competition General Rules 2025 on the Doll Artisan Guild website/Competition. Scroll down to find it.
